

VAT and Indirect Tax

Advising you on all your indirect tax problems.

The world of indirect tax has never been more complicated. Our team can advise you on all areas, including VAT, Duty, CIS, or SDLT. The team has many years of experience in practice and, in many cases, HMRC, and will give you sound, practical and real-world advice.

Whether you need support with being compliant or require specialist advice, our team is here to help you minimise risk and enhance your cash flow.

Furthermore, with the current economic climate, if you have any concerns over Brexit, we can advise on potential problems you may face.

VAT

VAT is probably one of the most complex taxes, we can support and advise you on all areas of VAT to ensure you are compliant.

Stamp Duty Land Tax

SDLT continues to increase and become more complicated. We can help you to minimise exposure to SDLT and avoid errors and mistakes in this fast-evolving area.

Duty

We can advise on importation and exportation requirements, as well as excise duty to help you minimise costs.

Disputes and tribunals

We have experience in dealing with HMRC to resolve investigations, as well as to request reviews and support with Alternative Dispute Resolution. Our VAT partner has won several high-profile tribunals.

CIS and IR35

The legislation for these two schemes continues to evolve and affect more businesses. As well as helping you with disputes in these areas, we will advise you on best practice.
