

Senior Associate– Business Services

Full time - Job description

About the role

We are looking for an experienced Senior Associate to join our growing Business Services Department. This position is client facing and therefore travel to clients is to be expected. The role is a hybrid mix of working in the Cornhill office and home working. The right person will work within the department in small teams of between two to four people, reporting into three managers. Therefore, we are looking for someone with excellent communication skills and a flexible attitude.

Is GE right for you?

A dynamic and evolving organisation which puts individuals at the heart of its business. We provide exciting opportunities across our firm, enabling our team to achieve new heights in their career. Here you will be challenged, supported and most importantly heard, enabling you to develop your skills and grow professionally and personally.

You will receive hands on training, personal development and support from leading and seasoned practitioners, partners and experts in their field, enabling you to quickly grow your knowledge and expertise and excel in your chosen career.

How we give back

To ensure our employees know how much we value their hard work, we offer an extensive benefits and perks package. Our package covers your lifestyle, health and wellbeing, development and finances. How about an additional day off to celebrate your birthday? Or utilising our in-house mentoring scheme? And access to our Work Life Well platform? These and many more perks are included in your GE employee benefits pack. To see the full list, click here.
