
Mixed Tax Manager

Full time

About the role

We are currently recruiting for a Mixed Tax Manager, to join our growing Tax Department, helping to ensure that it continues succeed and grow by building strong relationships with both clients and the Tax team.

Reporting to the Tax partners, we are looking for someone to oversee the compliance aspects of the department, someone who is willing to train and develop staff, and be able to assist with ongoing and ah-hoc Tax advisory assignments.

Is GE right for you?

A dynamic and evolving organisation which puts individuals at the heart of its business. We provide exciting opportunities across our firm, enabling our team to achieve new heights in their career. Here you will be challenged, supported and most importantly heard, enabling you to develop your skills and grow professionally and personally.

You will receive hands on training, personal development and support from leading and seasoned practitioners, partners and experts in their field, enabling you to quickly grow your knowledge and expertise and excel in your chosen career.

How we give back

To ensure our employees know how much we value their hard work, we offer an extensive benefits and perks package. Our package covers your lifestyle, health and wellbeing, development and finances. How about an additional day off to celebrate your birthday? Or utilising our in-house mentoring scheme? And access to our Work Life Well platform? These and many more perks are included in your GE employee benefits pack. To see the full list, click here

What will the role entail?

Responsibilities

- You will look to develop tax advisory and planning opportunities a for a mixed tax focused client base of HNWIs, Directors of OMB/large corporate clients, trusts, landed estate, property related, professional services and wider clients.
- You will oversee the day to day compliance within the department.
- Training and developing junior members of the team.
- The Partners of this highly successful firm, have identified a significant opportunity for the right client facing and relationship-focused tax professional to develop varied and complex planning and tax advisory services, across capital taxes, IHT and trusts etc and play in a key role in the future growth, direction, and development of this key service line within the firm.
- You will be responsible for identifying opportunities for planning across the client base, building relationships and delivering tax solutions.
- With the growth of the business, excellent prospects for longer term career progression and development are on offer for career focused individuals looking to progress in their tax career.

Requirements

- You will be either ATT/CTA/ACA/ACCA qualified with a career background in tax compliance and advisory/planning tax, gained within an accounting firm, or tax boutique firm of any size;
- Good capital gains tax knowledge, including knowledge of all capital gains tax reliefs such as Entrepreneurs relief, rollover relief and gift relief;
- Ideally, you will bring mixed tax technical skills across both personal and corporate tax advice;
- You may also bring a wider accountancy/mixed general practice background within your career, or equally may have focused entirely within the taxation sector throughout your career;
- You will have developed your career to at least Manager levels and be looking for the right career move where you can lead and develop a growing tax team and department; and
- A clear cut path to progress; along with looking to focus on advisory project work and deliver solutions to clients.

Want to learn more about life at GE?

Use the QR code below to hear what our team have to say.